

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
UNITED STATES ARMY, EUROPE, AND SEVENTH ARMY
UNIT 29351
APO AE 09014-9351

AEAGC-AV

2 February 2005

MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Delegation of Waiver Authority for Orientation-Training Requirements

This memorandum expires 1 June 2006.

1. Reference AE Regulation 95-1, General Provisions and Flight Regulations for Army Aviation, 12 December 2003.
2. Pursuant to AE Regulation 95-1, paragraph 1-5, I delegate waiver authority for requirements of AE Regulation 95-1, subparagraphs 4-2b(2)(a) and (b) (50-kilometer navigation and instrument orientation) to the first colonel (O6) in the individual aviator's chain of command. This waiver authority may not be delegated further.
3. This waiver authority is restricted as follows:
 - a. The waiver may be granted only to units redeploying from Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom for the purpose of ferrying aircraft from port of entry to home station.
 - b. This delegation of waiver authority is valid until 1 June 2006. However, I retain the authority to cancel or withdraw this delegation at any time.
4. When granting a waiver under the provisions of this delegation of authority, commanders should first select those crewmembers who have met the orientation requirements of AE Regulation 95-1 whenever those crewmembers are available.
5. Individual waivers must be annotated on DA Form 7122-R (Crew Member Training Record). Unit waivers must be documented in a memorandum signed by the first colonel (O6) in the chain of command. Other orientation-training requirements in AE Regulation 95-1, paragraph 4-2, may not be waived.
6. POCs are—
 - a. Aviation Division, Office of the G-3, HQ USAREUR/7A, DSN 370-9032.
 - b. Standardization Officer, USAREUR Aviation Safety and Standardization Detachment, DSN 467-4734.

B. B. BELL
General, USA
Commanding

DISTRIBUTION:
C (AEPUBS)